

Colorado Supreme Court 2 East 14th Avenue Denver, CO 80203	DATE FILED: February 7, 2022 CASE NUMBER: 2022SC78
C.A.R. 50 to the Colorado Court of Appeals, 2022CA91 District Court, Denver County, 2021CV32203
Petitioner: Chronos Builders, LLC, v. Respondent: Department of Labor and Employment, Division of Family and Medical Leave Insurance.	Supreme Court Case No: 2022SC78
ORDER OF COURT

Upon consideration of the Joint Petition for Writ of Certiorari Pursuant to C.A.R. 50 filed in the above cause, and now being sufficiently advised in the premises,

IT IS ORDERED that said Petition shall be, and the same hereby is, GRANTED as to the issues set forth below, and the briefs shall be filed as follows:

- (a) Petitioner’s Opening Brief shall be filed within twenty-eight days from this date;
- (b) Respondent’s Answer Brief shall be filed within twenty-eight days from receipt of the Opening Brief;
- (c) Petitioner’s Reply Brief may be filed within fourteen days from receipt of the Answer brief.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that in light of the urgency articulated by the parties in their joint C.A.R. 50 petition, no extensions of time will be granted for the filing of any of the briefs in this case.

Pursuant to CJD 11-01, all briefs must be submitted by either (1) directly uploading the document from a word processing format to the E-Filing system, or (2) electronically converting the document from a word processing format into a PDF format and then directly uploading the PDF document to the E-Filing system. Briefs shall not be uploaded into the E-Filing system in any manner that prevents the Court from employing enhanced search functionality within the document. Briefs should not be uploaded into the E-Filing system as scanned or graphic images.

Pursuant to C.A.R. 54(a), the record on file will be treated as though sent up in response to a formal writ.

The issues as announced by the Court this day are as follows:

Whether the Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance Act's premium violates Section (8)(a) of TABOR.
